

Any publication (flyers), form of electronic media, web page or other form of communication produced by students must include the following statement:

Students, under the direction of advisors, are responsible for producing and publishing this document. Students bear the primary responsibility for this production and its contents do not necessarily reflect the opinions and beliefs of the South Texas College faculty, staff, administration and Board of Trustees.